The California Real Estate Educators

first tuesday delivers California-specific Forms free!

Hello {FirstName} {LastName},

FYI: The California Department of Real Estate recently released a handbook entitled Instructions to License Applicants detailing all the whats, whos, and hows of earning, keeping, and using your DRE license. Click the handbook title above to view the DRE instructions.

We're doing an August/September double issue of the first tuesday journal online stay tuned for more economic analysis on the real estate market!

In our July email, we announced the FREE release of all first tuesday forms!

If you are a first tuesday member, free forms are now included as one of our many membership benefits. Take advantage of first tuesday s free forms in three easy steps:

1. Go to <http://www.firsttuesday.us/cddownload/> and log in using your license number.
2. Click on the "Download Now" button in the middle of the page.
3. Install the program and save money!

Mac users: currently the program will only run on a PC, however our tech team is working on a Mac-compatible version and we'll announce that when it becomes available. As a Mac user, you are still able to download individual forms and files. Simply go to <http://www.firsttuesday.us/>, log in using your license number, and click "first tuesday Forms
